

ONE DAY... ON MARS

Multimedia show with live commentary

Location: Milky Way Theatre Audience: Ages 7 and up Length: 40 minutes

Join our expedition to Mars and enjoy a thrilling immersive experience. You'll dive into the depths of seemingly bottomless canyons and brave the violent winds sweeping across the Red Planet's icy dunes. Set to original music by Dumas, One Day... on Mars takes you to a world that humans may well visit in just a few decades in our ongoing search for life there.

Produced by: Montréal Space for Life

Director and Scriptwriter:
Maxime Pivin Lapointe

Executive Producer and Project Manager:
Sébastien Gauthier

Artistic Director: François Guinaudeau

Assistant Director: Nicolas Didtsch

Text: Loïc Quesnel, Maxime Pivin Lapointe and Isabelle Pruneau-Brunet

Sound Designer: Benoît Dame

Production Co-ordinator:
Jade-Anaïs Généreux-Gamache

Original music: DUMAS

Music co-produced by: DUMAS and Martin Roy

Graphic design and postproduction:
François Guinaudeau, Nicolas Didtsch,
Pierre-Guilhem Roudet, Antonin Gaud,
Arnaud Mariat, Maxime Pivin Lapointe
and Bruno Colpron

Commentary coaching: Véronique Pascal

ASTEROID: MISSION EXTREME

Multimedia show

English narration: Sigourney Weaver French narration: Isabelle Blais
Location: Chaos Theatre Audience: Ages 7 and up Length: 25 minutes

Asteroids are both a danger and a fascinating opportunity for humankind. What if they could be used as way stations for future space missions? The challenges are enormous, but a mission so extreme could ultimately help us protect our planet and inhabit others.

Co-produced by Sky-Skan and National Geographic

Text: Annette Sotheran-Barnett and Mose Richards

Executive Producers: Brooke Runnette and Steven Savage

Producer and Director:
Annette Sotheran-Barnett

Lead Animator: Troy Whitmer

Post-production: Scott Wyman

Music, Sound Editors:
Pip Greasley and Dale Corderoy

French adaptation: Montréal Space for Life

Translation: Emmy Bos, Marc Jobin
and Loïc Quesnel

Executive Producer: Sébastien Gauthier

Project Manager: Loïc Quesnel

Voice Director: Nicolas Charbonneaux

Sound: Peak Media and Benoît Dame