

A scale mosaic

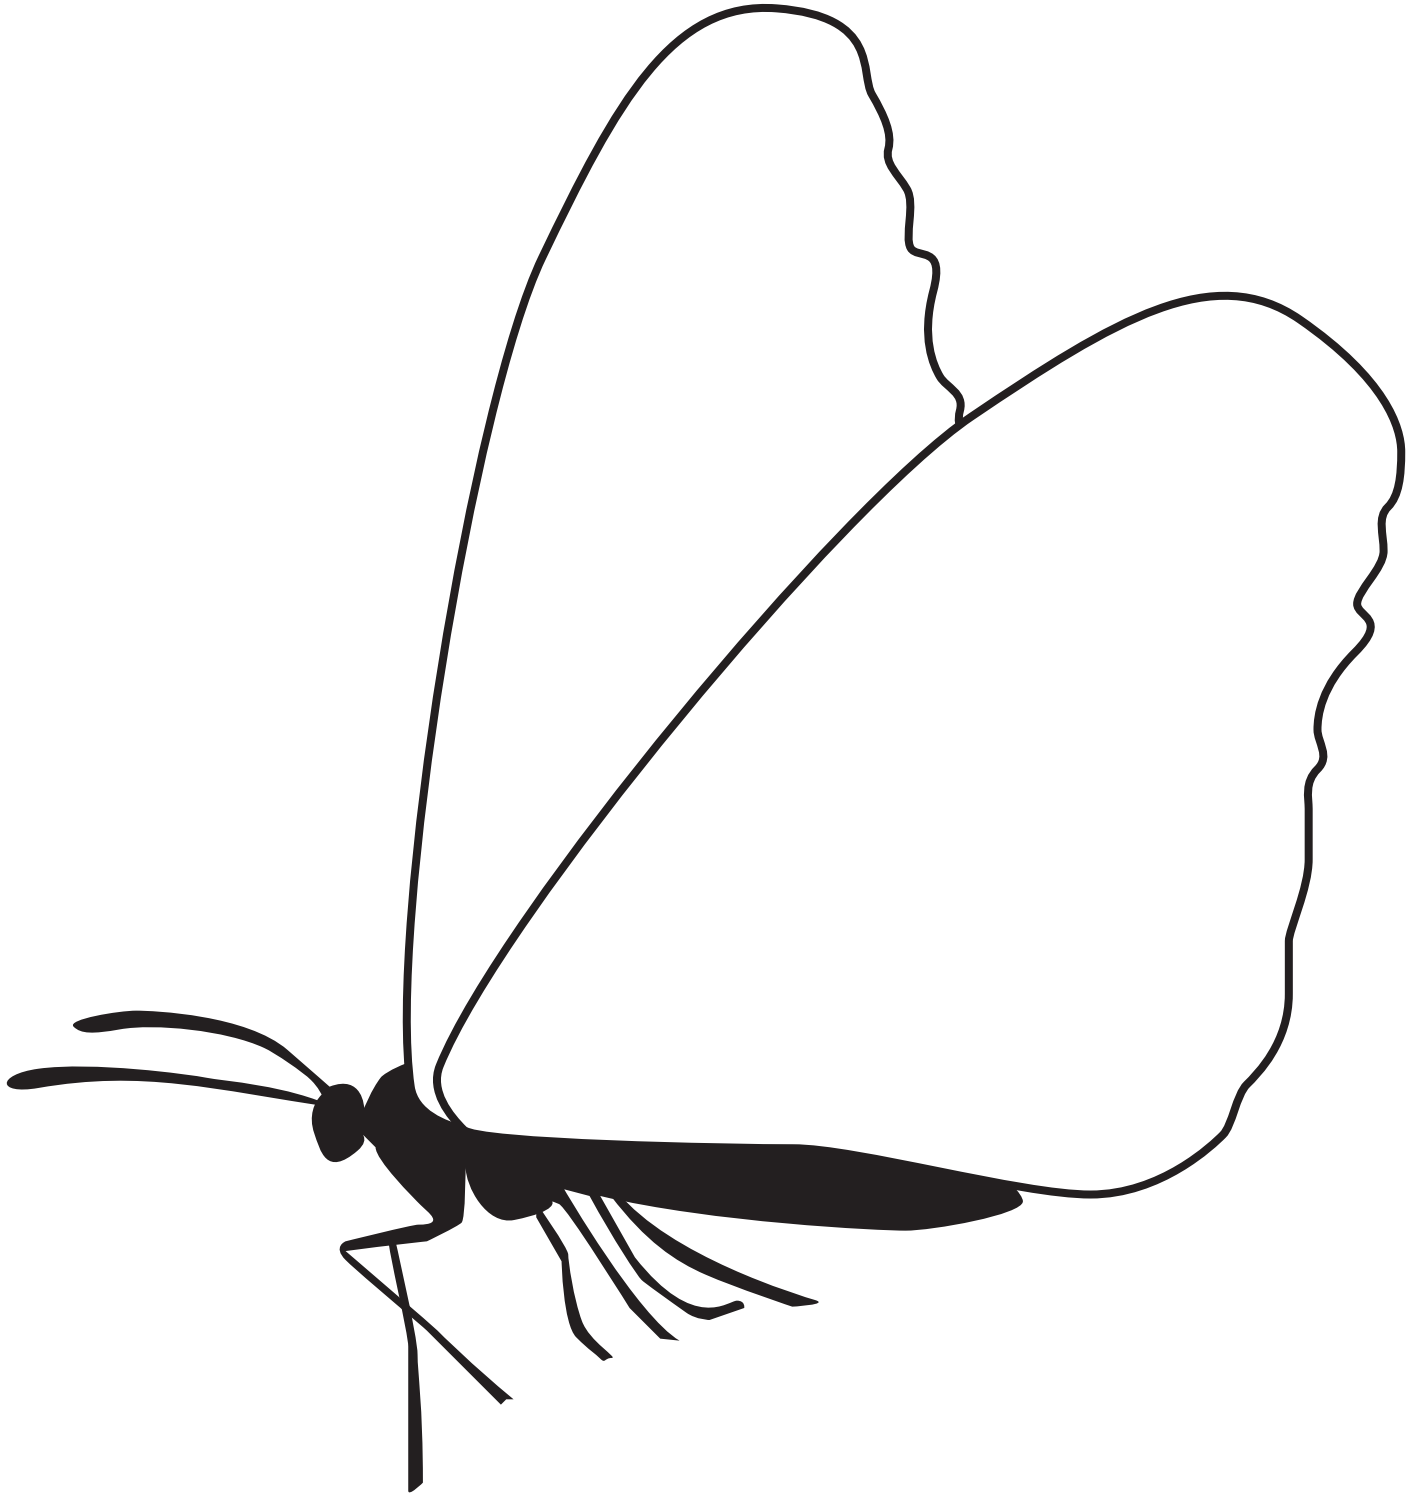

Butterfly wings are covered with thousands of multicoloured scales, which are actually so small that you can't even see them. But laid together side by side, they form magnificent patterns!

Colour these scales, cut them out and glue them on the butterfly's wings. You can create a new species and give it a name!

Name: _____ Group: _____

My butterfly's name is: _____